COMPANION TO THE PEERAGE
OF
GREAT-BRITAIN AND IRELAND, BEING AN
ALPHABETICAL LIST
OF SUCH OF THE
DAUGHTERS of DUKES, MARQUISES and EARLS,
(Now living) who are married to COMMONERS,
COLLECTED BY
JOSEPH EDMONDSON, Esq;
MOWBRAY-HERALD EXTRAORDINARY, EDITOR OF THE BARONAGIUM GENEALOGICUM.

---

L O N D O N:

PRINTED BY H. REYNELL, PICCADILLY,

For the EDITOR, and to be had at his House, in Warwick-Street,
Golden-Square; at J. RIDLEY's, Bookfeller, in St. James's-Street; and at J. WALTER's, Charing-Cross.

MDCCLXXVI.

* * At any of the above Places, Letters of Information for the EDITOR will be thankfully received.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

A P O L O G Y.

IT frequently happens among Persons not conversant with the Nobility, that when a Lady MARY A. or a Lady BETTY B. the Wife of a COMMONER is mentioned, the Company is at a Loss to know from what House her Ladyship is descended. The Maiden Name being lost and merged in that of the Husband, no Clue is left to lead to the Knowledge of her Family or Rank; and there being no Data to proceed upon, the Peerages can give but little Insight, and the Search will probably create a great deal of unsuccessful Trouble. It is therefore hoped, that the Use of this little Compilation will evince itself on various Occasions, and may be acceptable to those who wish to be acquainted with the Descent and Connections of the Ladies in Question. Errors, in an Attempt of this Sort, are unavoidable either from want of Information or from Mis-information: and the Editor will be greatly obliged to any Nobleman, Lady, or Gentleman who will favour him with an Account of such Ladies as are omitted—of such as are dead—or are mis-named with respect to any of the Parties. In a Subject of so fluctuating a Nature, Changes will arise every Day which may be corrected in future Editions, no one of which can ever remain long perfect, but that Deaths, Marriages, or new Creations will cause some necessary Alterations.

The Editor has chose to print this Appendage in the Size of Collins's Peerage; so that it may be bound up with it, or become a Pocket Companion at Pleasure: or by being interleaved, to receive Additions as they arise, it may swell to a Size that may give it the Honour for being a Parlour-Window Book in its own Right.

In order to preserve an Alphabetical Arrangement (for the Ease of the Consultor) it was necessary to disregard all Rank and Precedency, at which it is humbly hoped no Lady will be offended: and in describing the Gentlemen herein mentioned, the Collector has made use of their most permanent Titles or Appendages Saluti Ceteris Titulis. Thus, for Example, where a Gentleman is a Staff-Officer his specific Rank as such is purposely omitted, and a Blank left to be filled up with a Pen at Pleasure; it being sufficient to say he is a General-Officer (according to common Appellation) without ascertaining the Degree; for a Major-General to-day may become a Lieutenant-General to-morrow, which of course would occasion an Error from that Time: and it is hoped none will think themselves undervalued by the Omission.

The Collector has printed but a very few Copies of the first Impression, hoping thereby (as the Purchase is trifling) that he may receive Information of Omissions or Errors from some of the Purchasers in order to render the Second Impression as perfect as the Nature of the Thing will admit.

Warwick-Street,
Golden-Square,
1776.
